

Deaf Teen Leadership Camp

Sponsored by the Association of Washington School Principals and Washington State Association of the Deaf

June 26-July 1, 2017 – Cispus Learning Center

Program Overview

What is the mission of Deaf Teen Leadership Camp?

The Deaf Teen Leadership camp has four key goals:

- Empower Deaf and hard of hearing youth
- Foster personal growth
- Encourage confidence
- Create personal and community change

What happens at Deaf Teen Leadership Camp?

Through an interactive, weeklong camp experience, students learn and practice essential skills.

Workshops are held relating to character building, leadership, communication, integrity, self-identity, advocacy and teamwork. Students at Deaf Teen Leadership also have the opportunity to experience the Cispus challenge course, participate in Deaf culture enrichment activities and meet other Deaf and hard of hearing youth from high schools across Washington. The program is facilitated and supervised by staff of the Association of Washington School Principals.

Who should attend?

Deaf Teen Leadership Camp is open to Deaf and hard of hearing youth entering grades 9-12.

Who is a sponsor?

All delegates require a sponsor. A sponsor is a teacher, counselor or school administrator who recommends the student as a delegate to Deaf Teen Leadership Camp.

What is the cost?

The cost is $225 per delegate. Limited financial assistance may be available. Charter bus service is available for an additional fee. Students can also be transported to camp by a parent or carpool.

No student drivers are allowed.

How do I register for DTL?

The registration process consists of five steps:

1. Complete the Registration/Medical Form.
2. Have your sponsor and your parent/guardian sign the form.
3. Include with payment and mail to:
Association of Washington Student Leaders
2142 Cispus Road
Randle, WA 98377
4. Registration closes June 15. Late registrations accepted if space is available. All registrations after June 15 will be responsible for their own transportation!
5. As the date of camp nears, finalize your transportation arrangements. Students either sign up for our charter bus service at an additional fee, or they are transported to camp with an adult driver.

Student drivers are not allowed.
